

GO ON," HER CRY TO CHAUFFEUR AS CAR KILLS WOMAN

No Speeds Away With Victim's Garments Fluttering on Front.

CITY-WIDE SEARCH ON.

Broken Glass Causes Tire Explosion, but Doesn't Halt Dash to Escape.

A gray hooded touring car with two wheels crashed by broken glass and the front of the machine believed to bear evidence of the experience through which it passed is sought today by detectives investigating the death of Miss Josephine Thompson, a music teacher, of No. 130 Amity street, Brooklyn. The car struck and killed Miss Thompson at Amity and near street last night.

The police also are anxious to find the woman passenger in the gray car who was heard to shout, "For God's sake, go on—go on!" when the chauffeur, was about to stop the car after striking the music teacher. The chauffeur who obeyed that frantic command is the object of a third police quest.

The few persons who saw the death car as it sped away, tattered fragments of the dead woman's outer garments fluttering in the front, say there were four women in the car.
All four women are believed to have stepped out in the machine as Miss Thompson was crushed and are said to have been almost jolted from their feet when the machine leaped forward as the chauffeur threw on power after the shrill command to "go on."

Miss Thompson was on the way to her studio at Clinton street and Atlantic avenue, and stopped to talk with Mrs. Catherine Edwards just off the curb at the point where she was killed. The women separated only a moment before the gray touring car dashed up.

CHAUFFEUR SWUNG CAR TO AVOID BROKEN GLASS.
The chauffeur swung his car toward Miss Thompson to avoid some bits of glass that gleamed in the street and the music teacher was hit by a lamp, knocked down and dragged for several feet. Her coat and she was swung under the wheels as the garment was torn from her. The chauffeur applied the brakes and the automobile was coming to a stop when the woman passenger stood up and urged him to stop.

When the machine started up again, Miss Thompson was jerked back under it again and a second time the wheels passed over her. Her coat and fur neck piece were caught on the front of the auto and waved there like streamers as the auto disappeared.

Mrs. Edwards screamed and ran to the body of her friend, falling in a faint beside it. Women at windows commenced, too, and George McLeod of No. 130 Amity street ran out and carried both women to the sidewalk.
Some one ran to the Long Island College Hospital, half a block away, and gave an alarm. Attendants did not wait for an ambulance, but loaded up a stretcher and dashed on with it to the scene of the accident. Dr. Cornell got there ahead of the doctor.

The doctor said Miss Thompson was probably dead, but she was laid on the stretcher and rushed to the hospital. There his opinion was verified, the surgeons saying death probably had been instantaneous. Dr.
Cornell revived Mrs. Edwards and carried her to her home.

Miss Thompson was fifty-five years old and friends said to-day that her only relative, so far as they know, was a sister, Mrs. H. Crane, of No.
100 Bedford place, who has been ill for several weeks on account of Mrs. Crane's condition it was deemed inadvisable to tell her of Miss Thompson's death.

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIO or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregorio, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which is poten-tious does produce stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrup," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without your or your physician knowing of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, it is borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher
